COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Grant Lacy, of your town, came
up Sunday to see his parents.

Aunt Elizabeth Lacy is quite sick. Dr. Taulbee is attending
her.

H. E. Oney made a business trip
to War creek, Breathitt county,
last week.

J. J. Kerr, of Chicago, was on this side last week soliciting pictures to enlarge.

Miss Minnie L. Day, of your town, gave us a pleasant call one
day last week.

W. T. Caskey, of your town, was visiting the family of Uncle Newt
Lacy last week.

Arbury Brooks is at his sisters,
Mrs. Tinnie Spencer, of Menefee
county, on the sick list.

Mrs. E. K. Pike and Mrs. M. J.
Oney spent one day last week with
Mrs. Willie Swango, of Lacy creek.

Lee Caskey and wife and little
girl, of Grassy creek, spent Sunday
with their sister, Mrs. N. P. Lacy.

Going to school and being chief
cook and bottle-washer at home,
makes it hard for us to get up
news items.

Mrs. Oney went out to Daysboro
Monday to see Mrs. S. C. Alexander, who is quite ill, but we do
hope that Dr. Taulbee will soon
bring her around all right.

While up the river Sunday we learned that Miss Rachel Vest was married to Curtis Spencer last week. She was only 14 years old,
and weighed 180 lbs.

We are very well pleased with
our new pastor, and extend him
a hearty welcome, and only hope
that this may be one of the most successful years of his ministerial
life.

Amanda Brooks, who has been
blind since her childhood, was married to a Mr. Spencer a short time ago, were pleasant callers at her grandparents, J. E. Brooks and wife one day last week.

That Breathitt county boy of
ours came home Friday and went
back Sunday, and your writer accompanied him on his way as far
as Robert Anderson's above Lee
City, and we was so tired we stayed there till after dinner and was highly entertained by his daughter
with sweet music. If "Shiner,"
had been there, he would have enjoyed himself hugely.

Oct. 2. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

GILLMORE GLEANINGS.

Uncle Isaac Ely is very sick, and
in a critical condition.

Elders F. P. Wilson and Thomas
will hold services at this place the
first Sabbath in October.

Rev. H. H. Little, of whom we have written before as being quite
ill, is fast sinking, and ere this
goes to print may have passed
away.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson and son,
Clark county, Ky., is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity,
and will return back next Tuesday.

Charley Williams, from near the
ford of Slade, Montgomery county,
passed through here the other day,
enlarging pictures. He is a cousin
to our better.

Mrs. J. Z. Haney and children,
who have been stopping here for
some three months to improve
their health, will leave next Tuesday for Alabama, where they will
join Mr. Haney.

We hear that John Tyler, one of
the aspirants for jailor, is contest-
ing the legality of J. C. B. Little's nomination on the grounds of an
illegal election and illegal votes
being cast. We can not say as to
the votes, but otherwise if this
district was conducted illegal, there
was not many legal in the county.

Oct. 2. USCLE REMUS.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Dr. J. A. Taulbee was in Toliver
Sunday.

Lewis Brewer and J. L. Honaker have just returned from Pike.

Dr. Ova Swango and wife passed through Toliver Sunday.

Jim Linden, of Gillmore, was a visitor in Toliver Sunday.

the poet, passed through here this week en route to Hazel Green.

ton, passed through Toliver Saturday, en route to Menefee county.

O. W. McNabb has just returned from Frankfort, where he went to help take some prisoners to the penitentiary.

Leroy Boggs, one of Menefee
county's successful school teachers,
spent Sunday in Toliver. He left
for home at daybreak Monday.

Oh, say, Susie Sunbeam, we missed your letter last week so much. You must write if you expect to get good gravy and chicken
to eat.

Dr. Stewart and wife, who have been at the Swango Springs for
some time, staid over night with A.
B. Swango and family Saturday
last.

J. B. McNabb's mule fell down
with him Sunday and threw him
against a fence stake, hurting his
shoulder and leg, which have pain-
ed him considerably since.

There is a crab apple tree in
Henry Mannin's yard in bloom. It
has had one crop of apples this
year, and is now in bloom again.
Don't you believe it? Come and see!

J. J. Catron and wife have just returned from Chambers station,
where Mr. Catron recently purchased a farm, to which he will
soon move, having abandoned the
idea of going to Illinois.

Dewey, the little son of B. F.
Bolin and wife, died Sunday last,
after an illness of three months.
Mr. and Mrs. Bolin have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. But we are comforted when we think of the words of Jesus, "For of such is
the kingdom of heaven."

Oct. 2. SHINER.

isville, and her nephew, Burness
Rice, of Paris, are the guests of Harrison Swango.

Rev. E. K. Pike, of Hazel Green,

welcome Bro. Pike with us for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Swim and little daughter, Gertrude, made a flying trip to Oneonta Sunday.

daughter are the guests of J. H.
Williams and family. We are pleased to see them here again.

Taylor P. Wells bought from G.
W. McCormack, this week, a large tract of timbered land on Clifton,
and paid him mostly in fat cattle.

to Bud Myers for fattening purposes.

ton, spent from Wednesday till Saturday visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mrs. Sallie Phelps, of near town,
and Mrs. Jas. Kissick, of Lexington, were the guests of Mrs. C. D.
Swim Friday.

Mrs. Henry Samples, of Mc-Causey, formerly of this place, is convalescing, and will soon be entirely recovered.

we failed to learn the price paid.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

THURSDAY, October 4, 1900.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

THE per capita of expense under democratic rule was less than $5.00, under republican rule it is $9.50.

The strike epidemic started in Pennsylvania has penetrated Tennessee, and 500 miners at Coal creek are on a strike.

THE "full dinner pail" and the strikes do not consist. In consequence the republican managers are in hot water.

"BRYAN and Beckham" is the slogan that is being shouted by the democrats of Kentucky, and the voters are rallying as one man.

EASTERN republicans are writing to unemployed commercial tourists and offering them situations provided McKinley is elected. It is an old scheme, but it won't work now.

IT WILL be a hard matter to persuade the 60,000 drummers thrown out of employment by the trusts that the success of the republican party means full dinner pails to them.

RICHARD CROKER, the Tammany tiger, has wagered $100,000 that Bryan will be the next president, which shows that Croker has confidence that Bryan, at least, will carry New York.

LIKE a tidal wave Bryan will next month sweep the country from Portland, Maine, to the "golden gate." Never was there a man so popular with the people, and his popularity grows as the days pass by.

THE conviction of Jim Howard for the murder of Gov. Goebel, leads republican organs to observe that the jury was composed of democrats, and the inference that he was convicted for political purposes.

A CARTOON characterized with Mark Hanna's mug—a bloated bondholder with a pail full of bonds, etc.—is published as a true illustration of what the "full dinner pail" means, and it means just that. What does the trust magnate care whether his pauper brother has any pail, much less a full one?

McKINLEY the Imperialist. The constitution says that the congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States. But all the rules and regulations that have been made respecting the Philippines have been made by William McKinley, and not by congress. There has been no government of law in that region—merely a government of autocracy. Queen Victoria is officially called "Empress of India" but her power in India is trivial compared with that of President McKinley in the Philippines.

Gov. MOUNT, the republican governor of Indiana, replying to the statement of Mark Hanna, that there are no trusts in this country, says: "If Hanna made that statement he is trying to fool the people; there are trusts in the country and they are grinding the life out of the American people."

THE strike in the coal mines of Pennsylvania will cost the republican party thousands upon thousands of votes, and Boss Hanna is begging the money barons to do all they can to settle the controversy "until after the election."

MARK HANNA wants money and wants it bad. The coal barons should be invited to a feast. That increase of one dollar a ton ought to make a respectable campaign fund, even if it does represent human blood and human tears.

THE war in the Philippines has cost the government many millions in money, and 8,000 soldiers have perished from wounds or disease. The experiment of a republic at home and a monarchy abroad is costly.

ALL honest democrats deplore the treatment of Gov. Roosevelt in Colorado last week, and agree with Mr. Bryan "that such disgraceful proceedings tend to weaken the cause they profess to espouse."

THE sugar trust has raised the price of sweetness to such an extent that the laboring man takes his "trust" coffee straight.

MAILING A MAGAZINE

One Man Could Not Mail a Single Edition of The Ladies' Home Journal in a Whole Year.

Eighteen men, aided by the fastest mailing appliances, are kept on a rush every month getting The Ladies' Home Journal off to its subscribers. The first shipments are started about the middle of each month, and from that time until the twenty-fifth the magazines pour out of the Journal's publishing office by the two-horse-draw load. On the twenty-fifth of each month every Journal has reached its destination, and work in the mailing department slackens for a few days. Some idea of the tremendous size of the Journal's subscription list may be gained when it is known that forty tons of mailing type are required to set up the names of subscribers. There are three quarters of a ton each numeral, and it requires 20,000 galleys to accommodate the subscribers' names in type. This stock would equip six or eight large daily newspapers. As many as 65 compositors are employed setting the names of the Journal's subscribers in type—printers enough to set the type for the biggest metropolitan daily newspaper. The expenses for postage paid by the Journal approximate $75,000 a year.

Are you planning a berry patch? Don't think of doing it until you have read Judge Biggle's admirable little Berry Book. It contains the experience of thirty of the leading berry growers of the country. Experience has a cash value. The price of each is 50 cts., by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. and mention this paper.

A PHILIPPINE LETTER.

SAN LUIS, P. I., Aug. 14, 1900.
Editor HERALD, I take this method of informing my many mountain friends of my whereabouts and present occupation.

I have been a soldier in Co. L, 22d Infantry since December 10, 1898. Left Fort Crook, Neb., Jan. 28th; arrived at San Francisco, Cal., February 2d; sailed from Frisco on the 3rd via Honolulu to Manila, P. I., landing March 5th; crossed the 180th meridian on Saturday, and never had a Sunday for two weeks, so you see we were actually living two days in one. We gained on an average of 20 minutes a day coming over.

Sea sickness is something fierce. I don't know which is the worst sea sickness or morder fever. The typical Philippine is certainly a hard customer. To speak of these people, suggests a problem too funny to be solved. Cock fighting and the game of montie are their favorite amusements. Cock fighting is with these people what football is with the Americans.

They will eat anything from the choicest beef steak down to the creeping reptile. Rats and horse meat is considered a delicious dish, and they consider themselves lucky if they get a mess of snails.

Old vets of '61 can talk of their hardships, but I, myself, can tell them a tale of woe. No soldier ever suffered more than the 8th army corps lads that crossed the St. Nicholas trail to Bering Breng, wading streams and cutting the grit in columns of fours or in single file, of course owing to the lay and condition of the country, while some of the boys were hatless, shoeless and shirtless. At a place on the top of this terrible mountain is where the Spaniards had their barracks, which is at an elevation of about 6,000 feet, and is so windy you can hardly keep from being blown away. There is a heavy mist all the time at this point, for it is in the clouds, and everything is covered with moss, making it almost impossible to build a fire. We had no rations but native rice, and no medicine for the sick. It was march, march, march, often until 12 o'clock at night, then we would eat a scanty meal of hard-tack and rice, and lie down only to awaken at first call to find ourselves lying in a pool of water. We didn't even have the shelter of a dog tent.

Egbert B. Jones is in this company and sends regards to his Hazel Green friends. The Kentucky boys are all well and cheerful.
HERBERT H. GISH,
Co. L, 22nd Infantry.

The editor of the Farm Journal asks: "Why have a mortgage on the farm, poor crops, rheumatism, sour bread, grip, leak in the roof, hole in the pocket, skeleton in the closet, or any other pain or trouble, when you can get the Farm Journal, nearly five years (remainder of 1900, all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only 65 cents.

QUINN'S OINTMENT FOR HORSES

stands at the head of all veterinary remedies. Such troubles as Spavins, Curbs, Windpuffs, Splints, Bunches have no terrors for a horse if the master keeps and applies Quinn's Ointment. All well known horsemen speak of it in the highest terms:

Miller & Sibley of Franklin, Pa., owners of St. Bel, brother of late Bel Boy, write, "We have used Quinn's Ointment with great success and believe it fulfills all claimed for it. We cheerfully recommend it to our friends." For Curbs, Splints, Spavins or Bunches it has no equal. Price $1.50. Smaller size, 50c. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail. W. B. FINE SHOES.

I have just received the finest line and greatest variety of

LADIES' AND GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES

ever brought to the mountains, and having bought them before the recent rise in leather, I am prepared to save my customers money on every purchase they make. I want the ladies, especially, to examine my stock. For the price, I can show them a front-lace shoe that is a world-beater. It is, indeed, a beauty, and to the touch makes one feel that the shoemaker got hold of the kid-glove stock.

Respectfully,

JOHN M. ROSE.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the
week they have news letters. We are
dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Grant Lacy, of your town, came
up Sunday to see his parents.

Aunt Elizabeth Lacy is quite
sick. Dr. Taulbee is attending
her.

H. E. Oney made a business trip
to War creek, Breathitt county,
last week.

J. J. Kerr, of Chicago, was on
this side last week soliciting pictures to enlarge.

Miss Minnie L. Day, of your
town, gave us a pleasant call one
day last week.

W. T. Caskey, of your town, was
visiting the family of Uncle Newt
Lacy last week.

Arbury Brooks is at his sisters,
Mrs. Tinnie Spencer, of Menefee
county, on the sick list.

Mrs. E. K. Pike and Mrs. M. J.
Oney spent one day last week with
Mrs. Willie Swango, of Lacy creek.

Lee Caskey and wife and little
girl, of Grassy creek, spent Sunday
with their sister, Mrs. N. P. Lacy.

Going to school and being chief
cook and bottle-washer at home,
makes it hard for us to get up
news items.

Mrs. Oney went out to Daysboro
Monday to see Mrs. S. C. Alexander, who is quite ill, but we do
hope that Dr. Taulbee will soon
bring her around all right.

While up the river Sunday we
learned that Miss Rachel Vest was
married to Curtis Spencer last
week. She was only 14 years old,
and weighed 180 lbs.

We are very well pleased with
our new pastor, and extend him
a hearty welcome, and only hope
that this may be one of the most successful years of his ministerial
life.

Amanda Brooks, who has been
blind since her childhood, was
married to a Mr. Spencer a short
time ago, were pleasant callers at
her grandparents, J. E. Brooks and
wife one day last week.

That Breathitt county boy of
ours came home Friday and went
back Sunday, and your writer accompanied him on his way as far
as Robert Anderson's above Lee
City, and we was so tired we stay-
ed there till after dinner and was
highly entertained by his daughter
with sweet music. If "Shiner,"
had been there, he would have enjoyed himself hugely.

Oct. 2. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

GILLMORE GLEANINGS.

Uncle Isaac Ely is very sick, and
in a critical condition.

Elders F. P. Wilson and Thomas
will hold services at this place the
first Sabbath in October.

Rev. H. H. Little, of whom we
have written before as being quite
ill, is fast sinking, and ere this
goes to print may have passed
away.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson and son,
Clark county, Ky., is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity,
and will return back next Tues-
day.

Charley Williams, from near the
ford of Slade, Montgomery county,
passed through here the other day,
enlarging pictures. He is a cousin
to our better.

Mrs. J. Z. Haney and children,
who have been stopping here for
some three months to improve
their health, will leave next Tuesday for Alabama, where they will
join Mr. Haney.

We hear that John Tyler, one of
the aspirants for jailor, is contest-
ing the legality of J. C. B. Little's
nomination on the grounds of an
illegal election and illegal votes
being cast. We can not say as to
the votes, but otherwise if this
district was conducted illegal, there
was not many legal in the county.

from Frankfort, where he went to

Leroy Boggs, one of Menefee
county's successful school teachers,
spent Sunday in Toliver. He left
for home at daybreak Monday.

missed your letter last week so
much. You must write if you expect to get good gravy and chicken
to eat.

Dr. Stewart and wife, who have been at the Swango Springs for
some time, staid over night with A.
B. Swango and family Saturday
last.

J. B. McNabb's mule fell down
with him Sunday and threw him
against a fence stake, hurting his
shoulder and leg, which have pain-
ed him considerably since.

There is a crab apple tree in
Henry Mannin's yard in bloom. It
has had one crop of apples this
year, and is now in bloom again.
Don't you believe it? Come and
see!

J. J. Catron and wife have just returned from Chambers station,
where Mr. Catron recently purchased a farm, to which he will
soon move, having abandoned the
idea of going to Illinois.

Dewey, the little son of B. F.
Bolin and wife, died Sunday last,
after an illness of three months.
Mr. and Mrs. Bolin have the sympathy of the entire community in
their bereavement. But we are
comforted when we think of the
words of Jesus, "For of such is
the kingdom of heaven."

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

THURSDAY, October 4, 1900.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

THE per capita of expense under democratic rule was less than $5.00, under republican rule it is $9.50.

The strike epidemic started in Pennsylvania has penetrated Tennessee, and 500 miners at Coal creek are on a strike.

THE "full dinner pail" and the strikes do not consist. In consequence the republican managers are in hot water.

"BRYAN and Beckham" is the slogan that is being shouted by the democrats of Kentucky, and the voters are rallying as one man.

EASTERN republicans are writing to unemployed commercial tourists and offering them situations provided McKinley is elected. It is an old scheme, but it won't work now.

IT WILL be a hard matter to persuade the 60,000 drummers thrown out of employment by the trusts that the success of the republican party means full dinner pails to them.

RICHARD CROKER, the Tammany tiger, has wagered $100,000 that Bryan will be the next president, which shows that Croker has confidence that Bryan, at least, will carry New York.

LIKE a tidal wave Bryan will next month sweep the country from Portland, Maine, to the "golden gate." Never was there a man so popular with the people, and his popularity grows as the days pass by.

A CARTOON characterized with Mark Hanna's mug—a bloated bondholder with a pail full of bonds, etc.—is published as a true illustration of what the "full dinner pail" means, and it means just that. What does the trust magnate care whether his pauper brother has any pail, much less a full one?

McKINLEY the Imperialist. The constitution says that the congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States. But all the rules and regulations that have been made respecting the Philippines have been made by William McKinley, and not by congress. There has been no government of law in that region—merely a government of autocracy. Queen Victoria is officially called "Empress of India" but her power in India is trivial compared with that of President McKinley in the Philippines.

Gov. Mount, the republican governor of Indiana, replying to the statement of Mark Hanna, that there are no trusts in this country, says: "If Hanna made that statement he is trying to fool the people; there are trusts in the country and they are grinding the life out of the American people."

THE strike in the coal mines of Pennsylvania will cost the republican party thousands upon thousands of votes, and Boss Hanna is begging the money barons to do all they can to settle the controversy "until after the election."

MARK HANNA wants money and wants it bad. The coal barons should be invited to a feast. That increase of one dollar a ton ought to make a respectable campaign fund, even if it does represent human blood and human tears.

THE war in the Philippines has cost the government many millions in money, and 8,000 soldiers have perished from wounds or disease. The experiment of a republic at home and a monarchy abroad is costly.

ALL honest democrats deplore the treatment of Gov. Roosevelt in Colorado last week, and agree with Mr. Bryan "that such disgraceful proceedings tend to weaken the cause they profess to espouse."

THE sugar trust has raised the price of sweetness to such an extent that the laboring man takes his "trust" coffee straight.

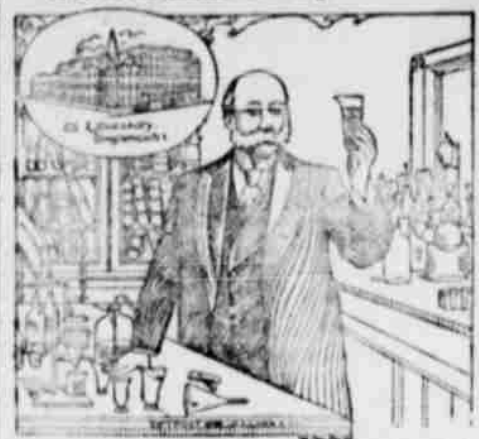

MAILING A MAGAZINE

One Man Could Not Mail a Single Edition of The Ladies' Home Journal in a Whole Year.

Eighteen men, aided by the fastest mailing appliances, are kept on a rush every month getting The Ladies' Home Journal off to its subscribers. The first shipments are started about the middle of each month, and from that time until the twenty-fifth the magazines pour out of the Journal's publishing office by the two-horse-draw load. On the twenty-fifth of each month every Journal has reached its destination, and work in the mailing department slackens for a few days. Some idea of the tremendous size of the Journal's subscription list may be gained when it is known that forty tons of mailing type are required to set up the names of subscribers. There are three quarters of a ton each numeral, and it requires 20,000 galleys to accommodate the subscribers' names in type. This stock would equip six or eight large daily newspapers. As many as 65 compositors are employed setting the names of the Journal's subscribers in type—printers enough to set the type for the biggest metropolitan daily newspaper. The expenses for postage paid by the Journal approximate $75,000 a year.

Are you planning a berry patch? Don't think of doing it until you have read Judge Biggle's admirable little Berry Book. It contains the experience of thirty of the leading berry growers of the country. Experience has a cash value. The price of each is 50 cts., by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. and mention this paper.

A PHILIPPINE LETTER.

SAN LUIS, P. I., Aug. 14, 1900.
Editor HERALD, I take this method of informing my many mountain friends of my whereabouts and present occupation.

I have been a soldier in Co. L, 22d Infantry since December 10, 1898. Left Fort Crook, Neb., Jan. 28th; arrived at San Francisco, Cal., February 2d; sailed from Frisco on the 3rd via Honolulu to Manila, P. I., landing March 5th; crossed the 180th meridian on Saturday, and never had a Sunday for two weeks, so you see we were actually living two days in one. We gained on an average of 20 minutes a day coming over.

Sea sickness is something fierce. I don't know which is the worst sea sickness or morder fever. The typical Philippine is certainly a hard customer. To speak of these people, suggests a problem too funny to be solved. Cock fighting and the game of montie are their favorite amusements. Cock fighting is with these people what football is with the Americans.

They will eat anything from the choicest beef steak down to the creeping reptile. Rats and horse meat is considered a delicious dish, and they consider themselves lucky if they get a mess of snails.

Old vets of '61 can talk of their hardships, but I, myself, can tell them a tale of woe. No soldier ever suffered more than the 8th army corps lads that crossed the St. Nicholas trail to Bering Breng, wading streams and cutting the grit in columns of fours or in single file, of course owing to the lay and condition of the country, while some of the boys were hatless, shoeless and shirtless. At a place on the top of this terrible mountain is where the Spaniards had their barracks, which is at an elevation of about 6,000 feet, and is so windy you can hardly keep from being blown away. There is a heavy mist all the time at this point, for it is in the clouds, and everything is covered with moss, making it almost impossible to build a fire. We had no rations but native rice, and no medicine for the sick. It was march, march, march, often until 12 o'clock at night, then we would eat a scanty meal of hard-tack and rice, and lie down only to awaken at first call to find ourselves lying in a pool of water. We didn't even have the shelter of a dog tent.

Egbert B. Jones is in this company and sends regards to his Hazel Green friends. The Kentucky boys are all well and cheerful.
HERBERT H. GISH,
Co. L, 22nd Infantry.

The editor of the Farm Journal asks: "Why have a mortgage on the farm, poor crops, rheumatism, sour bread, grip, leak in the roof, hole in the pocket, skeleton in the closet, or any other pain or trouble, when you can get the Farm Journal, nearly five years (remainder of 1900, all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only 65 cents.

QUINN'S OINTMENT FOR HORSES

stands at the head of all veterinary remedies. Such troubles as Spavins, Curbs, Windpuffs, Splints, Bunches have no terrors for a horse if the master keeps and applies Quinn's Ointment. All well known horsemen speak of it in the highest terms:

Miller & Sibley of Franklin, Pa., owners of St. Bel, brother of late Bel Boy, write, "We have used Quinn's Ointment with great success and believe it fulfills all claimed for it. FINE SHOES.

I have just received the finest line and greatest variety of

LADIES' AND GENTS' BOOTS AND SHOES

ever brought to the mountains, and having bought them before the recent rise in leather, I am prepared to save my customers money on every purchase they make. I want the ladies, especially, to examine my stock. For the price, I can show them a front-lace shoe that is a world-beater. It is, indeed, a beauty, and to the touch makes one feel that the shoemaker got hold of the kid-glove stock.

Respectfully,

JOHN M. ROSE.
